

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Crohn Disease-Like Reaction

National Cancer Institute (NCI)

Source

National Cancer Institute (NCI). Crohn Disease-Like Reaction.

Discrete aggregates of lymphoid white blood cells, some with germinal centers and surrounding fibrosis, commonly found around some colorectal adenocarcinomas in the absence of a clinical or pathological diagnosis of Crohn disease. Also called Crohn-like reaction.