

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Hyperlysinemia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Hyperlysinemia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C123433.

An autosomal recessive inherited condition caused by mutations in the AASS gene. It is characterized by elevated levels of the amino acid lysine in the blood. It usually does not cause health problems.