

Review of: "Adopting the UTAUT model to understand academic use of emerging technologies among Moroccan nursing students"

Fatemeh Darabi¹

¹ Hamedan University of Technology

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

- The title of the study should be more clear, especially about the model used - In the abstract, in the working method section, write the method of conducting the study and collecting data - In the findings section, numerical values for the results obtained in each of the variables should be written - There are too many keywords to be shortened and adapted to the mesh -- Explain the importance of nurses first, then bring the importance of this type of model - Has this type of study been conducted in Morocco on nurses or other students, if yes, please indicate the results. - At the beginning of the procedure, write about the type of study. Mention the study community and then write the entry and exit criteria of the study. - Then bring how to implement this study, which is a tool. - - Write the study ethics code in the work method. - Some statistics mentioned in the work method should be written in the results section. - In some cases, items in the work method, such as independent variables, etc., need to be written in such detail - - In the working method, explain the study tool in more detail and write the validity and reliability method. - In the results section, it should be more concise and coherent according to the objectives of the study. - In the discussion section, compare the results of the study with other similar domestic and foreign studies. - Use your opposite studies in this field as well - Write the applications of your study. - What were the suggestions for other writers?

Ming Guan¹