method

1- Adequacy of the sample size ?

2-Restrictions on sample selection?

3- The questionnaire part is unclear in the method.

4- Which questionnaire from which source has been used (validity and reliability)? Did the researchers have a group of experts to measure the validity and reliability of the questionnaire?

5- Demographic information of the sample?

6- The results should be presented according to the assumptions

7- Very short discussion section and no proper comparison with other new resources
