

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Post Translational Modification Analysis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Post Translational Modification Analysis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C18951.

Laboratory procedures used for the analysis of the processing events of a protein after its translation from messenger RNA in order to gain insight into biological function. These include mass spectrometric peptide sequencing and analysis technologies.