

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Emulsion Dosage Form Category

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Emulsion Dosage Form Category. NCI Thesaurus. Code C154466.

A type of liquid pharmaceutical dose form consisting of a stable dispersion of non-miscible liquids; it consists either of oil droplets in an aqueous continuous phase (oil-in-water emulsion) or aqueous droplets in an oily continuous phase (water-in-oil emulsion); for colloidal dispersions (droplets with a nominal diameter less than approximately 1 micrometre in size), see 'Dispersion'.