

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Dissociative Amnesia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Dissociative Amnesia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C94328.

A disorder characterized by a retrospective gap in memory of important personal information, usually of a traumatic or stressful nature; the memory loss far exceeds ordinary forgetfulness and is not the result of substance use or the consequence of a medical condition.

Qeios ID: H3LV44 · https://doi.org/10.32388/H3LV44