Osteoclastic Giant Cell-Rich Tumor of Bone

National Cancer Institute

Source

A benign, intermediate, or malignant bone tumor characterized by the presence of osteoclast-like giant cells. Clinical presentation includes pain, edema, and decreased range of motion in the affected joint.