

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Visceral Larva Migrants

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Visceral Larva Migrants. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34758.

A parasitic infection caused by worms found in domestic animals. In humans nematode larvae enter the portal system from the small intestine and disseminate in visceral organs causing inflammatory reactions. Signs and symptoms include eosinophilia, hepatomegaly, splenomegaly, and lung infections.