

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Vitamin D Dependent Rickets 2a

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Vitamin D Dependent Rickets 2a. NCI Thesaurus. Code C131075.

Rickets caused by a defect in the VDR gene, encoding the vitamin D receptor. This form of rickets is characterized by hypocalcemia, elevated 1,25-dihydroxyvitamin D (calcitriol) concentrations and may also manifest with alopecia.