

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Virtual Avatar Interaction Program

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Virtual Avatar Interaction Program. NCI Thesaurus. Code C161850.

Interactive technology that uses motion capture to animate a digital version of an individual. The system allows patients to freely act out representations of themselves, significant others, or family members in a personal and engaging way, allowing users to observe their stories in real time, potentially encouraging deeper reflection and memory retrieval.