

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Integrin AlphaL/Beta2

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Integrin AlphaL/Beta2. NCI Thesaurus. Code C97746.

Integrin alphaL/beta2 is a protein complex comprised of a heterodimer of integrin alphaL and integrin beta2. This complex is involved in leukocyte adhesion, cytolysis, helper T-cell interactions, and antibody-dependent killing by natural killer cells and granulocytes.