

Open Peer Review on Qeios

HIV Envelope Protein gp120

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. HIV Envelope Protein gp120. NCI Thesaurus. Code C16689.

A protein produced by the human immunodeficiency virus that functions as a viral anti-receptor attachment protein. The protein is localized to the viral envelope and mediates fusion between viral and cellular membranes.