

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Nonionizing Radiation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Nonionizing Radiation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C17053.

Electromagnetic radiation which does not produce ions in matter through which it passes. Its wavelengths are generally greater than those of far ultraviolet radiation and range through the longest radio waves.