Great effort in writing this paper. Some things to improve:

The objectives of this study was not clear or mentioned.

Provide explanation about your emerging technologies in your study, what specifically, what does other authors suggest in relation to UTAUT model or nursing studies? was the questionnaire adapted to Morocco's context?

Research design can be highlighted better in this study discussion were short, based on results; lack discussion were made on major findings, different results between this study and others.

Is there any other studies contradicting with your study's findings? why?

Create section for "implication for practice". Think about the practical/tangible solution readers can receive and practice from your study.
