

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Aortic Arch Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Aortic Arch Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34391.

A syndrome resulting from structural defects of the arteries that arise from the aortic arch. Signs and symptoms include weakness, dizziness, arm numbness, blurred vision and transient ischemic attacks.