

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Left ventricular noncompaction

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Left ventricular noncompaction. ORPHA:54260

Left ventricular noncompaction (LVNC) is a rare cardiomyopathy characterized anatomically by prominent left ventricular trabeculae and deep intratrabecular recesses causing progressive systolic and diastolic dysfunction, conduction abnormalities, and occasionally thromboembolic events.