

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Immunocytochemistry

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Immunocytochemistry. NCI Thesaurus. Code C17731.

A method for the detection of proteins or antigens on samples of cells that are grown in monolayers or in suspension and deposited on slides using antibodies or other biomolecules that bind the target and can be visualized through a chemical process.