Thank you for this engaging paper; however, some revisions are needed.

Background: Please consider incorporating additional literature from a global perspective and other countries, rather than solely focusing on Burkina Faso.

Methods: It is essential to provide a concise explanation of how dependent data were collected. Additionally, clearly define all independent variables utilized in this study.

Discussion: The discussion section requires a revision. The author should initiate the discussion by presenting the results and then delve into a comparison of whether these results align with those of other studies. If disparities exist, it is crucial to elucidate the reasons behind such differences.

Conclusion: Please conclude based on your findings and then provide some recommendations.
