

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Klippel-Feil Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Klippel-Feil Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C98967.

A rare congenital syndrome characterized by the fusion of the vertebrae in the cervical spine. Patients present with a short neck and restricted mobility of the upper spine. Other signs and symptoms include scoliosis, spina bifida, cleft palate, and rib malformations.