Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The paper has justified the title and its scope.
2. It is suggested to change the heading "Experimental" on page 2.
3. It is suggested to justify the whole text of the manuscript.
4. It is suggested to mention the formula for calculating the zone of inhibition.
5. It is suggested to add the figures of petri plates of antibacterial activities.
6. It is also suggested to apply statistical analysis to the data table for significant comparison.
7. The manuscript is good for publication and would be accepted after these minor revisions.
