

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Guehomyces pullulans

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Guehomyces pullulans. NCI Thesaurus. Code C127714.

A species of yeast-like fungi in the phylum Basidiomycota having cell walls containing xylose and lacking septal pores. It is characterized by an optimum growth temperature of 17 C, assimilation of nitrate, and an absence of growth with lactate.