Congratulations to the author for choosing this interesting topic. I would like to make a very few constructive remarks.

1. Abstract: The abstract is only a summary of the study in question. The citations are unnecessary.
2. Introduction: A bit of restructuring would be appreciated to ensure better understanding of the topic in question. It would be better to follow a logical sequence so that one idea leads to another and a clear picture is developed in the mind of the reader.
3. Methodology: It would be appreciated if the authors would explain the materials and methods used in this study so as to ensure the validity of the study findings.
4. Conclusion: It would be appreciated if the conclusion would explain the take-home message from this study and also offer some recommendations as well as suggestions for future research endeavors.
