

Review of: "There is high prevalence of overnutrition among married and cohabiting women in Nigeria: Findings from the 2018 Nigeria Demographic and Health Survey"

Isabel Paúles¹

¹ Servicio Aragonés de Salud

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This article relates the overweight and obesity of sub-Saharan women with the fact that they are married or single, in addition to having one religion or another, among other variables valued.

It is curious that women with more economic power have more weight than those with fewer resources.

Congratulations to the authors for the successful completion of the manuscript.

It is very well written and the study is very interesting.