

Review of: "Views and Attitudes of Pharmacy and Medical/Dental Students Towards Inter-Professional Education and Collaboration in the United Arab Emirates"

Dianne Slager¹

¹ Grand Valley State University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The author appropriately notes (and cites) the many benefits to patient care quality when various disciplines collaborate in provider care. These students from medicine, dentistry, and pharmacy demonstrate some awareness of each other's practice and discipline strengths.

Recommendations could be strengthened by referring to the International Professional Educational Collaborative's Core Competencies for Interprofessional Collaborative Practice.