

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Primary Cutaneous Acral CD8-Positive T-Cell Lymphoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Primary Cutaneous Acral CD8-Positive T-Cell Lymphoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C139023.

A cutaneous T-cell lymphoma presenting as an acral (peripheral) lesion. It was originally described as originating in the ear and is usually localized to a single site. It is composed of CD8-positive neoplastic T-lymphocytes. It has an indolent clinical course.