

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Unit-dose Blister

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Unit-dose Blister. NCI Thesaurus. Code C150138.

Container consisting of two layers of which one is shaped to contain the individual unit, usually provided with perforations, the intention being to allow each individual unit to be separated for single unit administration. All the information required for blister packs must appear on each unit dose presentation.