

Open Peer Review on Qeios

C-Reactive Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. C-Reactive Protein. NCI Thesaurus. Code C60651.

C-reactive protein (224 aa, ~25 kDa) is encoded by the human CRP gene. This protein is cleaved during biological activation and is associated with host defense mechanisms and inflammatory responses.