

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Ethacrynic Acid

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Ethacrynic Acid. NCI Thesaurus. Code C485.

An unsaturated ketone derivative of aryloxyacetic acid without a sulfonamide substituent belonging to the class of loop diuretics. Ethacrynic acid is extensively bound to plasma proteins; both ethacrynic acid in its unchanged form as well as its metabolites are excreted in bile and urine.