

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Malignant Ovarian Epithelial Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Malignant Ovarian Epithelial Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40026.

An invasive malignant tumor that originates from the surface epithelium of the ovary. It is composed of malignant epithelial cells and stroma. Representative examples include serous adenocarcinoma, mucinous adenocarcinoma, endometrioid adenocarcinoma, clear cell adenocarcinoma, and malignant Brenner tumor.