

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Inadequate Instructions for Non-Healthcare Professional

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Inadequate Instructions for Non-Healthcare Professional. NCI Thesaurus. Code C63267.

Problem associated with users being unclear and not able to follow any written, printed, or graphic matter that is affixed to device or its packaging with any matter that accompanies a medical device including verbal instructions related to identification, technical description and use of the device provided by a medical device manufacturer that vary from the standard of medical care in a given environment.