

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Circulating Tumor-Reactive T-Cell

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Circulating Tumor-Reactive T-Cell. NCI Thesaurus. Code C131128.

A population of T-lymphocytes that can mount an immune response against circulating tumor cells. These cells may spontaneously arise as a response to the presence of either endogenous tumor antigens or exogenous tumor antigens administered as a cancer vaccine.