The study targets a important & burning topic. However some suggested improvements are as follows:

Background: Though the title and objective focus on Marital property rights of women in Pakistan, however the background mainly mentions rights to own, acquire, inherit and control property & a meagre mention of marital property. Hence background needs improvement. It also needs to mention the importance of this study.

Discussion. Impact of Indian culture prevalent in Pakistan should is also worth mentioning in the section of Epistemological Role of Power, Misogyny, and Patriarchy.
