

Review of: "A Review of Informal Employment Research"

Francesca Giarè¹

¹ Council for Agricultural Research and Agricultural Economy Analysis

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The contribution is very interesting and reports the main studies on informal work, a very current topic. However, the methodology used for the review was not described.

Furthermore, the work can be improved by introducing a paragraph on policy recommendations ("The goal is to contribute to policy formulation aimed at ensuring the robust development of the informal economy and its practitioners") and expanding the conclusions with considerations and indications of possible future research.