

Review of: "Economics of Cattle Fattening - A Case of Bangladesh"

Kedir Mohammed

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The paper was written in a very good way and in very clear English. The number of samples used and the methods used were satisfactory. The results were presented clearly and adequately. My question is: Is a literature review important separately?

I recommend a literature review with a discussion part.