The manuscript is concise and needs some improvement to be ready for publication.

- 1-The entire manuscript needs to be improved grammatically.
- 2- A graphical abstract is needed.
- 3-The scientific name of the plant must be in italicized manner.
- 4-Discuss the rationale for doing the molecular docking in the introduction section.
- 5-Please revise the raw data of the flavonoids content, as the SD is too high.
- 6-Determine how the statistical analysis was done (Software).
