

Review of: "The Failure of Public Water Utility Privatization From Araral's Perspective: Implications for Ethiopia's Water Sector"

Livia Castro<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Universidade Federal do Ceará

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The privatization of public water utilities is not an easy issue to discuss, due to the many contradictory arguments in the literature and in the experience of many countries. Therefore, this article is an important tool and critical review of existing literature to clarify the viability of the fiscal and efficiency hypothesis of public water utility privatization.