

Review of: "Medical students' disease status of COVID-19: A multicenter study"

Shiau Li Lim

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

It is an interesting research topic and great efforts from the authors. However, this survey can only provide a general overview of the covid 19 disease status among the medical students without bringing much impact to your local practice. I suggest to discuss a bit more in the summary about how these results would help in preventing covid 19 infection , perhaps some recommendations?

Thank you for your great survey.