

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Disseminated Intravascular Coagulation in Newborn

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Disseminated Intravascular Coagulation in Newborn. NCI Thesaurus. Code C111856.

A clotting condition characterized as a disruption in the homeostatic balance of the coagulation and fibrinolytic systems presenting as a pathological activation of coagulation mechanisms leading to the formation of small clots inside the blood vessels throughout the body of the newborn.