

Review of: "Spin-statistics Theorem from the Stuart-Landau Equation"

Yanliang Zhang¹

¹ Jishou University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This manuscript explores the relationship between the SL equation and the spin-statistics. In my opinion, the abstract did not clearly state the main conclusions of the paper, the paper did not provide a clear explanation of the research background and significance, and there is no explicit expression in some formulas. These lead to poor readability of the paper. I think the author should further detailed the abstract, formulas, and research background.