

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Blepharophimosis-epicanthus inversus-ptosis syndrome

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Blepharophimosis-epicanthus inversus-ptosis syndrome. ORPHA:126

Blepharophimosis, Ptosis, and Epicanthus Inversus syndrome (BPES) is an ophthalmic disorder characterized by blepharophimosis, ptosis, epicanthus inversus, and telecanthus, that can appear associated with (type I) or without premature ovarian failure (POF; see this term) (type II).