

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Familial Mediterranean fever

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Familial Mediterranean fever. ORPHA:342

Familial Mediterranean fever (FMF) is an autoinflammatory disorder characterized by recurrent short episodes of fever and serositis resulting in pain in the abdomen, chest, joints and muscles.