

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Carbamide Peroxide

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Carbamide Peroxide. NCI Thesaurus. Code C77033.

An agent composed of urea and hydrogen peroxide. As an earwax removal agent, carbamide peroxide releases, upon administration into the ear, oxygen and causes foaming which helps soften, loosen and remove excessive earwax. It is also used as a disinfectant and in dentistry for its teeth whitening effects.