

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Megaloblastic Anemia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Megaloblastic Anemia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34382.

Anemia characterized by the presence of unusually large erythroblasts in the bone marrow called megaloblasts. It is usually caused by vitamin B12 or folic acid deficiency. Other causes include toxins and drugs.