

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Ishihara Color Plates

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Ishihara Color Plates. NCI Thesaurus. Code C123466.

A diagrammatic method to test color blindness of deficiencies, which utilizes a circular form composed of multiple size circles in varying colors. A number or symbol is present in the middle of the circle and is composed of little circles which are a different color from the circles composing the outer circular form.