

Review of: "Picture collage: A pedagogical reflective practice tool for nursing students in mental health practice"

Anwer Ali<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> COMSATS University Islamabad

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Reviewing second time the work as a pedagogical statement is insightful. For serious practices like mental health reflective writing is an essential task for transformation. Making the reflection visual and tangible can make the transformation effective and informed.