Open Peer Review on Qeios

Gliomatosis Cerebri

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Gliomatosis Cerebri. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4318.

A diffuse glial tumor which infiltrates the brain extensively, involving more than two lobes. It is frequently bilateral and often extends to the infratentorial structures, even to the spinal cord. It is probably of astrocytic origin, although GFAP expression may be scant or absent. (Adapted from WHO.)