

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Colorectal Mucinous Adenocarcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Colorectal Mucinous Adenocarcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C43585.

An invasive colorectal adenocarcinoma characterized by the presence of extracellular mucin pools that contain malignant glandular epithelial structures. The extracellular mucin pools occupy more than 50% of the malignant lesion.