

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Lysosomal Function Induction

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Lysosomal Function Induction. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40786.

Lysosomal Function Induction involves initiation of activities of diverse glycoprotein hydrolytic enzymes, active at acid pH, with structure-linked latency, and stored in single unit membrane-bound and morphologically heterogeneous cytoplasmic vesicles.