

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Lichenoid

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Lichenoid. NCI Thesaurus. Code C100095.

Having the characteristics of a chronic, recurrent, pruritic inflammatory disorder of unknown etiology that affects the skin and mucus membranes. It presents with rashes and papules that tend to resolve spontaneously. It may be associated with hepatitis C. Certain drugs that contain arsenic or bismuth are associated with reactions mimicking lichen planus.